

F-Class

F-Class rifle competition is the number one rifle sport in the world. It is shot on every continent and by people of all ages. F-Class is shot from the prone position at paper targets. The most common distances are 300, 500, 600 and 1000 yards.

At the Bluffs Shooters Range we shoot both Mid Range (600 yard) matches and Long Range (1000 yard) matches. The rules are the same for both distances other than the time limits.

There are two divisions – F Open and F/TR. F-Open allows rifles up to 22 pounds (including scope) with a caliber limit of .338 or smaller. F-Open is fired prone off a front and rear rest.

F/TR allows rifles up to 18.1 pounds (including scope and attachments). F/TR only allows a rifle restricted to the chambers of unmodified .308 Winchester/7.62mm NATO or unmodified .223 Remington/5.56mm X 45 NATO cartridge cases. F/TR is only fired off a bipod or sling and the use of a rear rest is permitted.

No muzzle breaks or suppressors are allowed in a match.

The shooters will be squadded prior to the start of the match.

In a standard match 60 shots are fired for record and unlimited sighters are allowed. They are fired in 3 relays of 20 shots for record, with unlimited sighters allowed during the specified time limit.

The matches will be shot on Shotmarker electronic targets and a smart phone or tablet displays the shots on the target.

A typical match lasts 3 to 4 hours with each competitor taking turns firing shots for the match and scoring for a fellow shooter.

The minimum equipment to shoot this match is: a firearm that meets the above requirements, front and rear rests (as is applicable for each class), 70+ rounds of ammo, a scope that will adjust to the distances being shot, eye and hearing protection, and either a smart phone or tablet to view and score on.

A shooting mat and spotting scope are helpful but not absolutely necessary.

Spectators are welcome but must stay off the firing line.
